Just a note:

Wow, this is a month of many changes! First of all, it is a time to congratulate our young adults who have graduated from high school and will be going on to another chapter in their lives. They are Quinn Kratovil, Matthew Hoel, Joe Niedzwiecki and Perry Rihl. Quinn, Matthew and Joe will be leaving the area for college, but we are lucky to be keeping Perry who will be staying here while pursuing his dreams. We thank you for all of your hard work and dedication to being a reader for our liturgies here at St. Raymond's and hope you continue to do so wherever you are. Best wishes for much success and happiness and God Bless each of you always.

Now, as a result of a workshop on June 21st, there are a few new names on the schedule. We welcome Victoria Aponte, Annie Choudhry, Joseph Crowley, Mary Jean DePaolo, John Matty and Jonathan Vorhis. We are delighted that you decided to join our community of readers for the liturgy.

We are still in need of readers for the 7 p.m. Mass on Tuesday, Thursday and Friday. Please let me know if you can read at least once or twice between now and the end of July. We could also use a reader for the 9 a.m. Mass on Saturdays. Thanks.

May each of you enjoy a safe, relaxing and Happy July Fourth. We have so much to be grateful to God for with our freedom and this wonderful country of ours. Even in the hardest of times, we have so much more than many other people in the world. Let us cherish our country and one another. Peace and God's blessings on each of you.
